Mmmmmmmmmmm Numb. 6454.

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, June 28. 1722.

London, June 28.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France, one from Flanders, and another from Holland.

Lisbon, May 28.

THE Infante Don Francisco, returned hither the 26th Instant from his Country Seat at Samora Correa, and the 24th being the Anniversary of his Birth, he received the usual Compliments on that Occasion from the foreign Ministers and Nobility of the Court. The King has bestowed the Lordship of St. Vincent de Beyra, with an Annuity of 20000 Crusades in Commanderies, to Don Michael Charles de Tavora, General in his Majesty's Forces, in Consideration of his long Service. The King has granted the Royal Historical Academy a Privilege to publish the Works of the Academists, without Leave from the Ordinary Censors.

Cadiz, June 2. An Advice-Boat arrived here from Cartagena brings News, that a British Ship of 64 Guns, belonging to the South-Sea Company, is arrived there with a very great Cargo. The Dutch Consul received a Letter last Week from the Morocco Admiral Abel Padel-Perez, giving an Account, that his Master the Emperour of Morocco is disposed to make Peace with the Dutch, and to give Liberty upon the usual Terms to the Slaves of that Nation. It is believed that the Spanish Squadron commanded by Don Antonio Serrano is ordered to go in quest of the Galleons that are now expected home from the West-Indies with rich Cargoes.

Rome, June 13. Cardinal Althan went to the Quirinal on the 9th Instant, attended by a great Train, and the sacred College holding a General Assembly pursuant to that of the 6th, his Eminency made there his Personal Appearance to take the Oaths in the Emperour's Name to the Holy See, in order to receive the Investiture of the Kingdom of Naples: At his Entrance he made three Reverences kneeling, kiss'd the Pope's Feet, and sat at his Right Hand. The Emperour's Procuration being read, the Cardinal was again conducted to the Pope's Feet, and received his Benediction, kiss'd his Foot, his Hand and Face: He returned afterwards to his Seat among the Cardinals; and the Ceremony being over, the Cardinal took his Leave of the Pope, having fixed his Departure for Naples on the 15th Instant. It is said, he goes dissonented from this Court, because of his being denied to be treated with the same Ceremonial the Popes' grant to Secular Neapolitan Viceroys, his Eminency declining that which is allowed to Cardinal Viceroys.

Genoa, June 10. Letters from Rome say, that Cardinal Alberoni continues his Spiritual Exercises among the Jesuits, to whom he is said to have been recommended by Father Daubenton the King of Spain's Confessor; and that his Eminence keeps his Palace shut till the End of the five Months Retirement which he is to pass with those Fathers.

Vienna, June 17. Some Advices from Italy intimate, that the Grand Duke of Tuscany is observed to grow daily weaker and weaker; and that 'tis reported the Infante Don Carlos was already arrived in Italy, in order, as 'tis given out, to visit his Grandfather and Grandmother, the Duke and Dutchess of Parma. The Imperial Court is expected hither from Laxemberg in a Day or two, and 'tis assured the Emperour sets out the 3d of next Month for Presbourg, in order to be there present at the opening of the Diet, whose Members still object against admitting the Deputies of Transilvania upon Account of Difference in Religion. 'Tis said the Emperour designs not to continue there above three Days, and that he is to be accompanied thither by the Prince of Lorrain, who is reported to be arrived in Silesia, to take Possession of his Dutchy of Tetschen. Great Preparations are making for celebrating the Archdutchess's Marriage with the Electoral Prince of Bavaria. 'Tis said, that among other Advantages to be given the Bavarian House, the Electoral Prince is to have the Government of the Netherlands during Life, together with the Expectative of considerable Estates in Italy, either for him or for his younger Brother, and in the mean Time, that the Bishop of Munster shall be obliged to furnish a certain Subsidy.

Hambourg, June 26. 'As soon as M. Westphale, 'Envoy of Denmark, arrived at Petersbourg, he 'sent Notification of his Arrival to the Czar, and 'desired to know if his Czarish Majesty would 'permit him the Honour of waiting on him at his 'Capital, ... to which he has received an 'Answer in Writing brought by an Express, im-'porting, that his Person was very acceptable to 'the Czar, who should be glad to have M. West-'phale come to Moscow and continue there till his 'Czarish Majesty returned from Astracan; and the 'rather, because his Privy Council would con-'tinue all the Summer in that Capital, and con-'sequently M. Westphale would have the best 'Opportunity to begin his Negociations: Upon 'the Receipt of this Express, M. Westphale be-'gan his Journey towards Moscow, and is thought 'to be arrived there by this Time. Letters from 'Sweden say, an Embassy is expected there 'shortly from the Czar.

Paris, July 4. The Preparations for the King's Coronation are continued with the utmost Diligence, and on the 2d Instant, M. de Cotte, Comptroller of the Works, set out Post from hence for Rheims, to visit and repair the Lodgings in that Place. Cardinal [illegible] of Portugal, who lately resided at Rome, arrived here the 29th past from Italy, and the Conde d'Ereceyra, a Portuguese Nobleman, who happened to be here through the Mischance that befel him in returning homewards from his Government of Goa, set out as far as Fontainbleau to meet the Cardinal; and this Week his Eminence began to pay his Visits to the French Cardinals. A Son of M. de la Chapelle, of the Admiralty-Office, is lately returned hither from Constantinople, and reports, that Celebi Mehemet Effendi is not looked upon with a good Eye by the Grand Signior's Courtiers, because he did not visit them at his Arrival from this Kingdom; he adds, that the Grand Signior and Grand Vizier are but indifferently satisfied with him, upon Account of his concealing the rich Presents that were made him by this Court at his Departure, which they nevertheless got a true List of from his Interpreter. The Parliament granted an Arrêt on the 26th past, at the Request of Madame de St. Gi-fact, to dissolve the Marriage of her Son M. de St. Ciran, a Councellour of the Court, who in his Minority married a Woman of low Birth and bad Character, against the Consent of his Mother and Relations: By this Arrêt, the young Woman is condemn'd to three Years Confinement. The King went to St. Cyr on the 14th past, and was confessed by Father Ligaieres, a Jesuit, who then executed that Office for the first Time, by Approbation from the Bishop of Chartres, St. Cyr being in his Diocese. Since Judgment has been given in the Case between the Prince and Princess of Conti, that Princess has entered a Protest before a Publick Notary, declaring, that what Discourse soever she may have with the Prince her Husband, when he visits her during her Stay in the Convent, it shall not for the future be had in Evidence to her Prejudice. The Gallows and Wheel are in daily Use with dispatching the Followers of Cartouche; but such a Number of Criminals are still brought to the Prisons of this City, that 'tis believed all the Executions cannot be finished in two Years: Six were brought in a Cart the 30th past from Lyons, and among them a young Lady masked, and very handsomely dress't; 'tis said she was Mistress to Pellicier, one of the chief Rogues in Confederacy with Cartouche.

Plymouth, June 24. Yesterday sailed the John and Henry for London.

Bristol, June 25. Yesterday arrived the Scipio, Nightingale, and Nassau, all three from Jamaica; Sarah from St. Christopher's; Richard and Mary, and Charming Molley, from Malaga.

Deal, June 26. The King's Ships and the outward bound are still here. Arrived the Corbusheer from Bermudas; Phœnix Factor from Barbadoes; Russia Galley from Oporto; Ayles Galley from Malaga; Unity from Maryland; and Eastland from St. Ubes.

London, June 28.

Yesterday South Sea Stock was 94 1 half, to 94 3 qrs. with the Dividend. Bank 119 1 half. India Book shut. African 13 3 qrs. to 13 1 half. Unsubscribed Lottery Annuity 101 1 qr. York Buildings 22 3 8ths, to 22 1 qr. Royal Exchange Assurance 5 7 8ths. London Assurance 6. New Lottery Tickets 11 l. 1 s. 16 l. 18 s. to 11 l.

The Managers appointed to pay the Interest on the Benefit Tickets in each of the Lotteries Anno 1719, which remain unsubscribed to the South-Sea Company give Notice, That they will begin the said Pay (which is to clear the Interest on the said Tickets to Lady-Day last 1722) at their Office in Whitehall, on Wednesday the 27th Instant, and continue the same daily and every Day (Sundays and Holidays excepted) from Nine in the Morning till One at Noon; and as the said unsubscribed Tickets are afterwards to be taken in, and from Lady-Day 1722, the Annuities on those which belong to the Lottery called the 1st Lottery, are to be paid by the Cashier of the Bank, and the Principal and Interest on those in the Lottery called the 2d Lottery, are to be exchanged for and paid by Orders in Course. The said Managers give further Notice, That the Proprietors of these last Tickets may, if they think fit, have their said Tickets entred for Orders at the Time of receiving their said Interest, bringing a List of their Tickets in a Numerical Order as near as may be, with the Name, Place of Abode, or other proper Description entred thereupon, of the Person which is to be inserted in the said Orders. And as to the other unsubscribed Tickets, the said Managers will certify their particular Numbers and Value to the Cashier of the Bank with all Expedition, so as he thereupon may be enabled to take in the same, and entitle the Proprietors to a transferable Annuity payable there.

The Receivers of the Malt Lottery 1722, give daily Attendance at the Bank of England for Delivery of Tickets in Exchange for their Receipts: And such Tickets as shall not be taken away before the 2d of July next, (the Time appointed by the Managers and Directors to begin the Drawing) will be sealed up before the said Managers, and not delivered out till the Drawing of the Lottery is finished.

The Trustees for Repairing the Highways from the Stones-End in Kent-street in the Parish of St. George's Southwark, to the Limekilns in East-Greenwich near Black-Heath, &c. in the County of Kent, hereby give Notice, that they have appointed a Quarterly Meeting on Saturday the 30th Day of this Instant June, by Ten in the Forenoon, at the Bowling-Green-House on Black Heath, and then intend to take under their further Consideration the Amendment of the Road in Lewisham-Town.

At the Desire of several Persons of Quality.
For the Benefit of Mrs. Atkins.

AT the New Theatre, over-against the Opera House in the Hay-Market, this present Thursday, being the 28th Day of June, will be presented, The Tragedy of Jane Shore. Duke of Glocster Mr. Wm. Bullock, Lord Hastings Mr. Parker, Catesby Mr. Turner, Ratcliff Mr. Barrett, Belmour Mr. Warren, Dumount Mr. Atcheson, Alicia Mrs. Clark, Jane Shore Mrs. Parker. With several Entertainments, Particularly the Hornpipe by Mr. Jones. To begin at Seven a-Clock.

Whereas on the 11th Day of June, a Country Woman in a brown Serge Gown and Petticoat, a Straw Hat lined with black, and a short Cloak upon her Arm, seeming to be between 30 and 40 Years of Age, came to a Gentleman's House within Ten Miles of London, with a Message from a young Lady to the Lady of the House; this is to acquaint that Person, that she is willing to hear what she has to propose to her, at her own House, or any proper Place in Town.

Lost on Friday Morning last, in Queen-street, a little Spaniel Bitch, white, with large Liver-colour'd Spots, and has lately pupp'd: She has a small Wenn on her Belly. Whoever brings her to Mr Wairesdall's, at the Twisted Posts in Great Queen-street, near Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, shall have half a Guinea Reward.

PETER HEMET, Jun.

Operator for the Teeth, (lately Partner with his Father Mr. Peter Hemet, Sworn Servant to His Majesty King George) who is most expert in Drawing and Cleaning of Teeth, making artificial Ones, and performing all other Cures thereunto belonging, is removed from the Strand to Mr. Frainau's, (the Prince's Confectioner) near St. Alban's-street in Pall-Mall.

To be Sold,

The Inheritance of a Mannor or Lordship, together with several Messuages and Lands, lying within a Borough in Cornwall, of the Value of about 850 l. per Ann. besides the ancient Reserv'd Rent, being about 110 l. per Ann. now lett out upon 1, 2, or 3 Lives. Particulars may be had at Mr. Wm. Taylor's, upon Bread-street-hill; Mr. Francis Sawle, at the Golden Key, near Somerset-House in the Strand; London; and of Thomas Worth, Esq; at Penryn in Cornwall. N. B. The above-mentioned Borough sends two Members to Parliament, one half of the Electors are Tenants to this Estate.

To be Sold by AUCTION,

This Day the 28th Instant, the Household Goods of the Rt. Hon. the Countess of Sussex, deceased, at her late House in Albemarle-street, consisting of Mohair, and other Beds and Bedding, Window Curtains, and Chairs, fine Tapestry and Carpets, right India Japan Cabinets and Screens, large Peer and Chimney-Glasses, China and fine Pictures, Kitchen Ware, &c. Catalogues to be had at the House. N. B. The House to be Lett.

To-morrow the 29th Instant, at Five in the Afternoon, will be sold to the best Bidder, before John Harding, Esq; Deputy Remembrancer, at the Exchequer-Office in the Temple, the Mannor of Little-Hoole, with its Appurtenances, near Preston in Lancashire, a Messuage and Lands in and near Derby, and several Messuages in Leicester, late the Estates of Benjamin Blundell, Esq; Receiver-General for Leicestershire, and of Benjamin Blundell, Sen. his Security.

For SALE by the CANDLE.

To-morrow the 29th Instant, at Lloyd's Coffee-house in Lombard-street, at six a-Clock in the Afternoon, (only one Cask, one Chest, or two half Chests of Wine in a Lot) viz. Eleven Hhds. of Excellent White Oporto Wine, fine and fit for Bottling, also one Hhds. of Extraordinary good Sherry Wine, strong, clean and well tasted, in a Vault against the Back-Gate of the India-House in Lime-street. 44 Chests, and 18 half Chests of Excellent new fed Chianty Florence Wine, in a Cellar under a Gunsmith's against Mincing-Lane End in Fenchurch-street. To be seen and tasted this Day from 8 to 1, and from 2 to 6, and all Day To-morrow, (as above) till the Time of Sale. To be sold by Tho. Hatton, and William Gibson, Brokers.

Just published,

The Natural Method of Teaching. Being the Accidence in Questions and Answers, Explained, Amended, Abridged, and Fitted to the Capacity and Use of the lowest Form. Leading the Learner from Letters to Syllables. Syllables to Words. Words to Sentences. I. Single. 2. Compounded. Where is added an account of the Transposition, and most usual Ellipses of Words in a Sentence. By perpetual, plain, easie and necessary, I. Examples to be imitated. II. Rules to direct the Imitation. III. Exercises Latin and English to ascertain the Imitation by the Direction of the Rules. Into which is inserted, I. A Vocabulary of English and Latin Words under each Part of Speech, reduced into tolerable Order. II. Sententiæ Pueriles, English and Latin, consisting of the same Words put into plain Sentences under every Syntactick Rule. The 7th Edition, yet more fitted for the Use of the lowest Form. By Samuel Hoadly, M. A. Printed for John Wyat, at the Rose in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

LONDON, Printed by S. Gray in Amen-Corner,